MLK Visitors Center

As you walk around the Visitors Center, please notice the six areas that are emphasized. Look for the following in each of the areas:

- I. "Segregation"--Write down three examples of segregation in Georgia.

- II. "The King Family"--Read about MLK's grandmother whom he called Mama. What is especially unique about her upbringing?

- III. "Call to Lead"--Go over to the "window" and read the information in the "room."

- IV. "Visiting the Mountain"--Watch the TV screen to see some of MLK's famous speech.

- V. "Expanding the Dream"--List three slogans you see on protest signs. We will talk about what they mean.

- VI. "Overcoming Loss"--What does the 6:00 mean on the clock?

The last part of the exhibit is the Freedom Walk where you see life size models symbolic of the various groups of people who participated in the Civil Rights movement. Describe who you think these people represent:

At the top of Freedom Walk, read the information. What is the question and what does it mean?

(At the end of the exhibit are some phones and comment sheets. We will not participate in these today.)
